Love entertaining? The party sized outdoor entertaining area could be exactly what you have been dreaming of!

From the moment you enter through the front door via the welcoming timber decked Verandah the floor plan flow's seamlessly offering great separation of living with a formal lounge and dining room along the hallway and to the left the open plan kitchen family meals and games areas and to the right the kid's bedrooms and activity zone. A home that is practical and offering an easy living feel.

As appealing as the home is from the inside, the highlight is the huge all weather patio that features a built in bar and gas bbq station, an inviting place to enjoy meals, particularly on a Sunday afternoon BBQ with family and friends...the kids will no doubt find the sparkling solar heated swimming pool irresistible!
